data.census.gov: Changing the way you get data at the U.S. Census Bureau

Transitioning from American FactFinder (AFF) to data.census.gov:

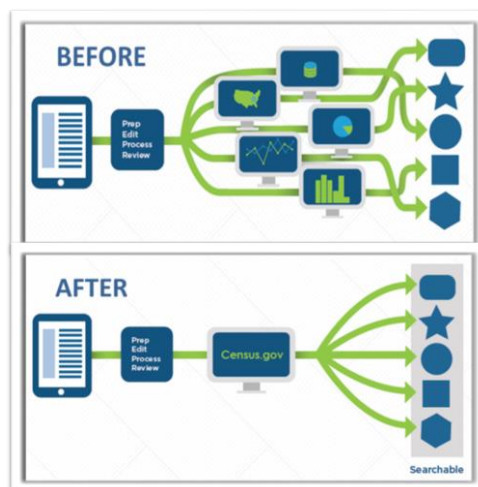

- Streamline access to data
- Maintain best of current tools
- Reduce redundancies and costs
- Provide greater access to Census API

Most AFF data migrated to the Census API and data.census.gov:

- Spring 2020

First major releases exclusively on data.census.gov this September:

- 2017 Economic Census
- 2018 American Community Survey 1-Year Estimates

How to Use data.census.gov

1. How to Search

Two Options To Start Your Search:

1. Single Search:

- Free form search box

2. Advanced Search

- Select search criteria in a step-by-step filtering experience where you select desired checkboxes

Explore Census Data

Tips:

- You can find many results with either search option
- You can only access some complex topics/geographies using the advanced search. Give advanced search a try if you're not finding a quick answer to your data question with single search.

Single Search: Keywords and Codes

The screenshot shows the U.S. Census Bureau search interface with three search examples and their corresponding results:

- Search 1: "commuting sacramento" and "s0801 sacramento" → Results for "SELECTED SOCIAL CHARACTERISTICS IN THE UNITED STATES" (Table S0801).
- Search 2: "dp sacramento" → Results for "SELECTED ECONOMIC CHARACTERISTICS" (Table DP001).
- Search 3: "gas stations in sacramento" and "447 sacramento" → Results for "All Factors: Nonemployer Statistics for the U.S." (Table A001).

Advanced Search: More Complex Searches

MEANS OF TRANSPORTATION TO WORK BY WORKERS' EARNINGS IN THE PAST 12 MONTHS (IN 2018 INFLATION-ADJUSTED DOLLARS)

Survey/Program: American Community Survey
 Universe: Workers 16 years and over with earnings
 Year: 2018
 Estimates: 1-Year
 Table ID: B08119

Source: U.S. Census Bureau, 2018 American Community Survey 1-Year Estimates

Although the American Community Survey (ACS) produces population, demographic and housing unit estimates, it is the Census Bureau's Population Estimates Program that produces and disseminates the official estimates of the population for the nation, states, counties, cities, and towns and estimates of housing units for states and counties.

Data are based on a sample and are subject to sampling variability. The degree of uncertainty for an estimate arising from sampling variability is represented through the use of a margin of error. The value shown here is the 90 percent margin of error. The margin of error can be interpreted roughly as providing a 90 percent probability that the interval defined by the estimate minus the margin of error and the estimate plus the margin of error (the lower and upper confidence bounds) contains the true value. In addition to sampling variability, the ACS estimates are subject to nonsampling error (for a discussion of nonsampling variability, see ACS Technical Documentation). The effect of nonsampling error is not represented in these tables.

Workers include members of the Armed Forces and civilians who were at work last week.

While the 2018 American Community Survey (ACS) data generally reflect the July 2015 Office of Management and Budget (OMB) delineations of metropolitan and micropolitan statistical areas, in certain instances the names, codes, and boundaries of the principal cities shown in ACS tables may differ from the OMB delineations due to differences in the effective dates of the geographic entities.

More Data

The screenshot displays the 'More Data' section of the Census Bureau's data tool. The top navigation bar includes options like 'Data Notes', 'Geographies', 'Years', 'Topic', 'Survey', 'Code', 'Hide', 'Filter', 'Sort', 'Transpose Table', 'Margin of Error', 'Restore Layout', 'Download', 'Print', 'Share', 'More Data' (highlighted with a red box), and 'Map'. Below this, the 'Download / Print / Share' section has tabs for 'DOWNLOAD', 'EMBED', 'SHARE', 'API', 'PRINT', and 'MORE DATA' (selected). The 'More Data' section contains a link to download larger data files from a directory. A red box highlights the 'CONTINUE TO SITE' button. Below the main content, there is a table with columns 'Name', 'Last modified', and 'Size Description'. The table lists a file named 'NS1700NONEMP.zip' with a last modified date of '27-Jun-2019 11:20 24M'. A red box highlights this row. To the right, a Windows File Explorer window shows the file 'NS1700NONEMP.zip' in the 'Downloads' folder, with a size of 246 MB. The file is highlighted with a red box.

PUBLIC HEALTH INSURANCE COVERAGE BY TYPE AND SELECTED CHARACTERISTICS
 Survey/Program: American Community Survey
 Year: 2018
 Estimates: 1-Year
 Table ID: S2704
 Source: U.S. Census Bureau, 2018 American Community Survey 1-Year Estimates

Although the American Community Survey (ACS) produces population, demographic and housing unit estimates, it is the Census Bureau's Population Estimates Program that produces and disseminates the official estimates of the population for the nation, states, counties, cities, and towns and estimates of housing units for states and counties.

Data are based on a sample and are subject to sampling variability. The degree of uncertainty for an estimate arising from sampling variability is represented through the use of a margin of error. The value shown here is the 90 percent margin of error. The margin of error can be interpreted roughly as providing a 90 percent probability that the interval defined by the estimate minus the margin of error and the estimate plus the margin of error (the lower and upper confidence bounds) contains the true value. In addition to sampling variability, the ACS estimates are subject to nonsampling error (for a discussion of nonsampling variability, see ACS Technical Documentation). The effect of nonsampling error is not represented in these tables.

Logical coverage edits applying a rules-based assignment of Medicaid, Medicare and military health coverage were added as of 2009 – please see https://www.census.gov/library/working-papers/2010/demo/coverage_edits_final.html for more details. The 2008 data table in American FactFinder does not incorporate these edits. Therefore, the estimates that appear in these tables are not comparable to the estimates in the 2009 and later tables. Select geographies of 2008 data comparable to the 2009 and later tables are available at <https://www.census.gov/data/tables/time-series/acs/1-year-re-run-health-insurance.html>. The health insurance coverage category names were modified in 2010. See https://www.census.gov/topics/health/health-insurance/about/glossary.html#par_textimage_18 for a list of the insurance type definitions.

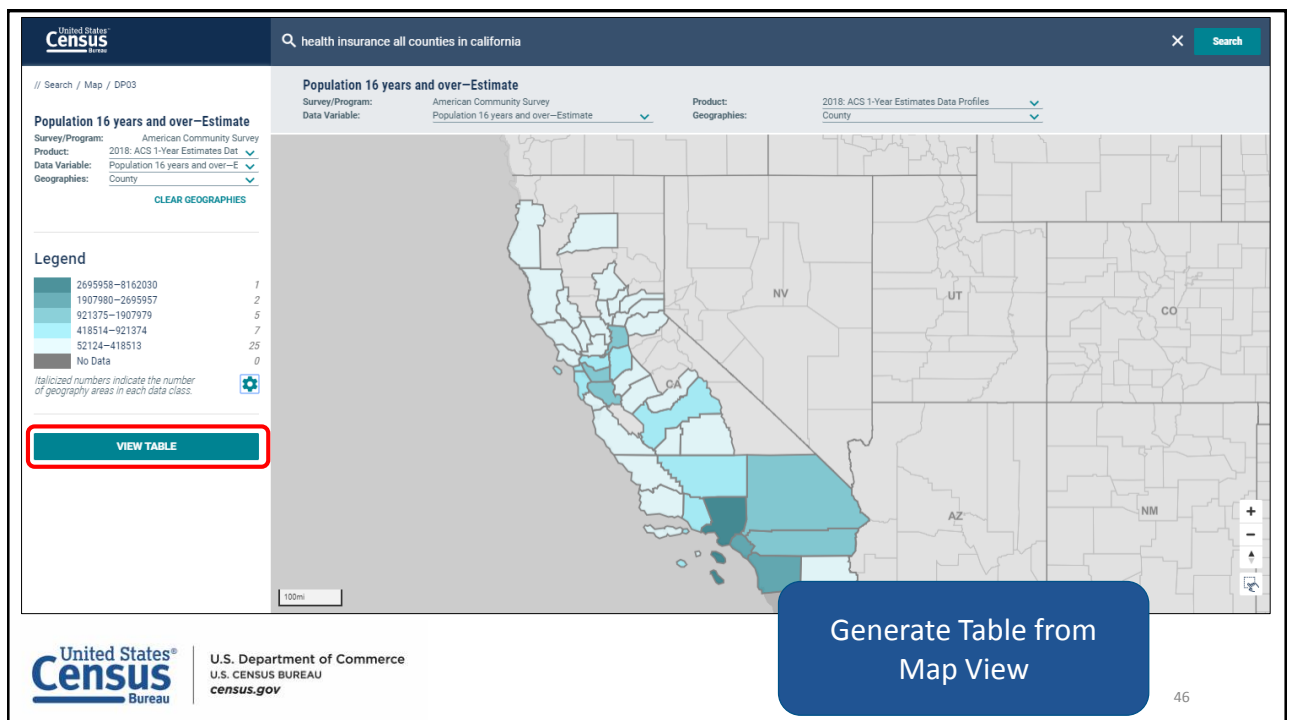

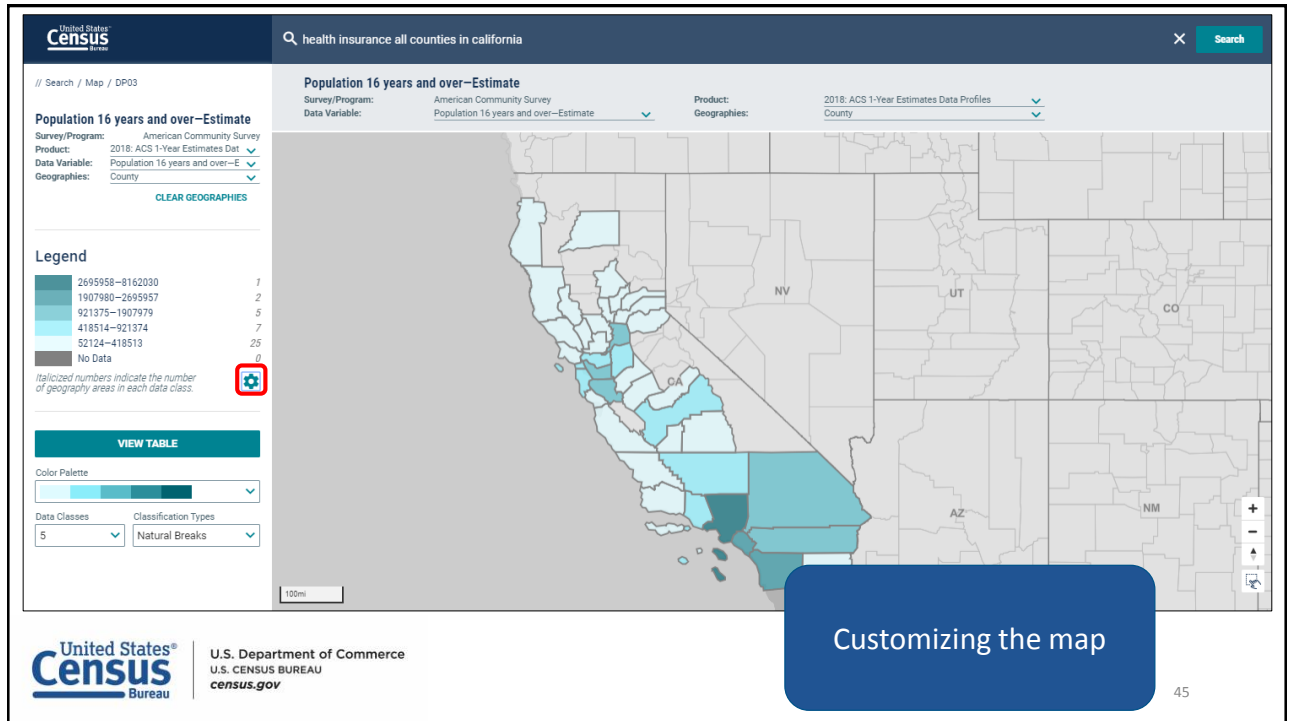

Beginning in 2017, selected variable categories were updated, including age-categories, income-to-poverty ratio (IPR) categories, and the age universe for certain categories. See Health Insurance Table Updates for further details.

While the 2018 American Community Survey (ACS) data generally reflect the July 2015 Office of Management and Budget (OMB) delineations of metropolitan areas, codes, and boundaries of the principal cities shown in ACS tables may differ from the OMB delineations due to differences in the effective dates of the geographic boundaries.

Collections of Geographies: Where Are the Checkboxes to Select All Geos in a List?

More checkboxes coming for 2018 ACS 5-year release in December. In the meantime:

- Use maps on data.census.gov to select individual geographies or small groupings
- Use FTP sites or API
- Use American FactFinder to get data for collections of geographies from 2017 ACS 5-year release until we build the checkbox on data.census.gov
